

Nov. 17, 2007

Contact: Daubert Cromwell; 708-293-7750, ex. 169

New Managing Director in Europe Brings International Experience

Linus Ruth is the new Managing Director of Daubert Cromwell GmbH, recently opened in Stuttgart, Germany.

He has an extensive and diverse background in sales management, having held positions of increasing responsibility since 1977 at Robert Bosch GmbH, General Semiconductor GmbH, and Littlefuse GmbH. Most recently he was in charge of Business Development Automotive - Europe for Brangs & Heinrich/Antalis, the packaging distribution division in Germany. He is fluent in 4 languages. He will coordinate sales efforts in Europe and beyond from his offices in Stuttgart.

“Linus is a valuable asset to our efforts to grow sales in strategically important locations,” said Martin Simpson, Vice President Sales & Marketing. “Developing partnerships and doing business in these regions of the world is important to our company, and Linus is the right person for the job.”

---

About Daubert Cromwell

Since the 1940s, Daubert Cromwell has set industry standards in corrosion prevention packaging. Today Daubert Cromwell products are used in automotive, heavy equipment, electronics, military, aerospace, and steel markets worldwide. Corporate headquarters are in Alsip, IL. It has extensive distribution and manufacturing networks in the US and 26 countries.